Platform Engineering

Acme Corp

3.2 / 5.0 AMBER

20 February 2026

10 of 12 team members responded (83%)

Executive Summary

This assessment was conducted on Platform Engineering within Acme Corp, with 10 of 12 team members participating (83% response rate). Based on analysis across six core health dimensions, the team achieved an overall health score of 3.2/5.0, classified as Developing (AMBER). The team's maturity level is assessed at Level 3: Defined.

KEY FINDING

The Platform Engineering team operates at a Defined maturity level with strong cross-functional collaboration. However, a gap in psychological safety is suppressing candour and dampening continuous improvement. Addressing safety culture will be the highest-leverage investment for reaching High-Performing status.

Coaching Recommendations

#1 Introduce Blameless Post-Incident Reviews

Shift post-incident retrospectives to a blameless format focused on systemic learning. Use structured templates and circulate findings across squads.

Effort: Low Timeframe: 0-4 weeks

#2 Establish Protected Learning Time

Ring-fence 10% of sprint capacity for learning and experimentation. Track utilisation of learning budgets at team level.

Effort: Medium Timeframe: 1-2 months
